

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Marilyn Tunberg Nyberg is being honored by Trinity Lutheran Church, Yankton, South Dakota, in gratitude for her 40 years of exemplary service to her community; and,

Whereas, Marilyn is a graduate of Yankton College, earning a Bachelor of Music with majors in Sacred Music and English; and,

Whereas, Marilyn began instilling her love of music into young musicians in Minneapolis, Germany and South Dakota and continues to share her talent and time teaching piano and organ students; and,

Whereas, Marilyn shares with her husband, Jim, a willingness to perform on piano, recorder organ and harpsichord for the enjoyment of a wide range of groups and causes; and,

Whereas, Marilyn has served her community by her participation in the American Guild of Organists, the South Dakota Teacher's Association, the Board of Trustees of the National Shrine to Music Museum, PEO and Questers; and,

Whereas, Marilyn has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, teaching the appreciation of music and the caring and sharing with family friends:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 15, 2006, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
